

History

St Joseph's Catholic Primary are pleased to introduce their new History Ambassador team. Each class has put forward a member of their class who loves History and wants to encourage that love in others.

The Role of the History Ambassador

- To share a love of History with their class.
- To link with Mr Gregory, the subject leader
- To introduce ideas for trips and experiences that will enrich our history curriculum.
- To support the recording of trips and study in history on the school website.
- To give the pupils in their class a voice and help them to share their ideas.
- To support other members of the school.

Meet the Team

	JoJo- Representing Donaldson "I've been learning about castles."
	Sofia &amp; Aaron -Representing Dahl Class Sofia: "I liked learning about Mary Anning and David Attenborough." Aaron: "I like learning all about History."
	Herbie &amp; Alfie -Representing Rowling Class Herbie said, "I have always wanted to learn about Britain's past and find the Stone Age fascinating". Alfie has recently enjoyed learning about the Stone Age. He made a fantastic cave painting to show the class his knowledge. Alfie likes history because he likes learning about things from the past that he doesn't know about.
	Lewis &amp; Sam -Representing Morpurgo Class Lewis likes history because there are a lot of things to discover and explore. You can go from the dinosaurs, to the Egyptians to the Romans, there are so many different eras to learn about. Sam enjoys history and says that learning about the past can help us stay safe in the future. His favourite topic is the Victorians. Sam would like to team up with David Attenborough to find out if the megaladon is still out there!
